Good Samaritan Family Services

The Board of the Good Samaritan Family Services seeks applications from qualified candidate for the following position:

Executive Director

The successful candidate will serve as the organizational leader for Good Samaritan Family Services (GSFS), upholding the core values and principles of GSFS at all times. The Executive Director will directly oversee the departments and leadership positions within the organization. The candidate will also help build public, donor and clientele awareness of the GSFS ministry in addition to developing a focus on individual donors, foundation support and planned giving. Candidates must possess outstanding written and verbal communications skills and be of the highest ethical character. Candidates must also be in agreement with our Statement of Faith, Missions Statement, and Policies of the organization. Candidates with a bachelor's degree and 3-5 years of relevant professional experiences will be preferred. A detailed position description is available by contacting Stan Moore at stanm96@gmail.com.

The position offers competitive compensation and a flexible, collaborative, work environment. Please submit a cover letter and resume via email only to Stan Moore, Board Member, Good Samaritan Family Services, at stanm96@gmail.com. The deadline for application is February 28, 2019.
